True or false...

You can just copy a legal document from another website and use it on your own?

🚫 FALSE! 🚫

You'll end up with a jumbled mess of legal gobbledeygook that doesn't protect you or your blog and also run into legal issues like copyright infringement.

Why put yourself at risk?

"I can sleep better at night thanks to Amira's templates. My website is in legal compliance along with my speciality area, I also purchased the LLC template and feel relieved knowing my personal assets are secured. They were easy to fill out and I was impressed with the professional documents. The entire process was a breeze." - Susan D.

"I had so much anxiety about making sure I was covered legally while starting my own blog. After going around in circles and driving myself crazy, I found A Self Guru and oh my God, the relief. So easy to understand, so clearly laid out that even I understood the parts that needed filling in and finally super quick! I was up and running in 20 minutes with these templates! I cannot recommend Amira's Legal Bundle enough!" - Lou W.

I hear this from bloggers ALL 🙌 THE 🙌 TIME 🙌 They have no idea what they need to do to protect their blog, so they do nothing and suffer the consequences.

"I'm starting a blog for the first time and was becoming overwhelmed by the thought of making sure I was protecting my blog (and by extension, myself). There were so many options online, but I couldn't tell if the authors were reliable. I was so excited to find A Self Guru and the Legal Bundle that Amira offers. Legal products written by a legal expert? Yes please!" - Liz W.

"Amira's templates have been a lifesaver for our blog, How to Fire! We purchased the Legal Bundle for our site and the Independent Contractor template to use for outsourced work. We wouldn't have known how to protect our business without these templates. They are thorough and professional, and have saved us so much time, stress, and money!! We can't thank you enough." - Sam H.
